ICAC Oversight

- The Institutional Certification Advisory Committee is mandated by Arkansas law and is appointed by the Commissioner of ADHE.
- ICAC has oversight of out-of-state postsecondary institutions that are not in the State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (SARA) and Arkansas private institutions.
- Institutions exempt from ICAC oversight:
 - Church-related training
 - Institutions on military bases
 - Institutions in regional and national reciprocity agreements (like SARA)

State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (SARA)

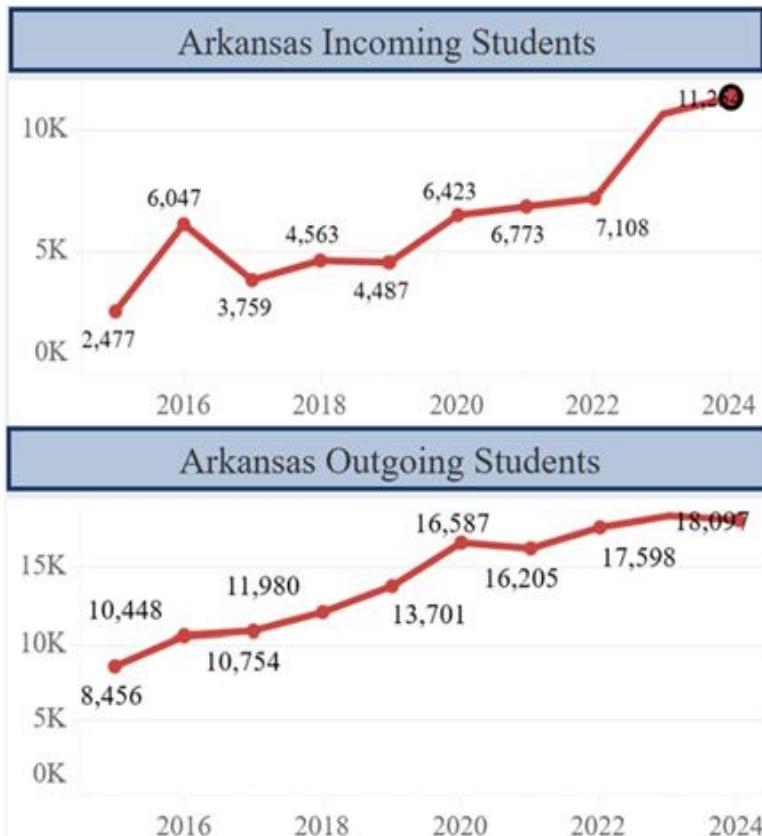

- ADHE must approve Arkansas colleges and universities offering distance technology programs for SARA participation based on institutional accreditation, financial stability, and student complaint resolution policy and procedures.
- 38 Arkansas institutions are in SARA; over 2,400 institutions nationwide have joined.
- SARA participation is optional for Arkansas institutions.
- Applications to ADHE from out-of-state institutions have decreased as more states and institutions have joined SARA.
- Every state, Puerto Rico, D.C., and the Virgin Islands has joined SARA except California.
- For more information and data on Arkansas enrollments, go to: nc-sara.org/
